

2010 - Part 2:

Songs inspired by the middle part of the year 2010 (before, during and after summer). First recall the harsh winter (1). Then hear a sad story (2). Some plans come true, some do not (3). There is a beautiful small lake with warm water (4). We are all very busy with important things (5). It is futile to try to capture the essence of summer, so try (6). It is futile to try to see the whole picture, so try (7). Sometimes something unexpected happens and changes our plans (8). A special kind of beauty need not be less (9). Just before going to sleep, the trees bear beautiful fruit (10). The golden autumn is a kind of finale (11).

Recorded August - September 2010.
Made with Jack, Rosegarden, fluidsynth DSSI and soundfonts.
